

TIME WITNESSING

The Author's vivid memories of two visits to Israel, and his background in service in and around the Church and in Government, have given him special insight on the matters of our country today, and the threats to our Freedoms and that on the Family. Detailed study of God's Word, and sitting under the teachings of several ministers of the Bible, have helped Kevin form his understanding of what we need to do about these issues today, and why each person needs to be ready for the emanate return of Christ, and provides a unique mathematical manner of understanding how long Eternity will be, whether your future home is Heaven or Hell.

The author is the son of Reverend Ray and the late Mrs. Edna Turnbaugh, and is a 1972 graduate of Hanover High School in Hanover, Pennsylvania. Although he has not had any college education, he has always had a great interest in the history of the world, and specifically that of the United States. Kevin considers himself as a Patriot in the colonial sense. Kevin lives in New Oxford, Pa with his wife Lori and their dogs and cats, including Kevin's guide dog Jodi.

As the son of a minister, The Author had the truths from the Bible as part of his life right from his birth. His life was dramatically changed in August of 1984, when his eye doctor gave him the news that he was going blind from the incurable eye disease Retinitis Pigmentosa. In early 1998, he went totally blind from this disease.
